

Vulnerable Check Consent Form

This form is to be completed by any person applying for a paid or volunteer position with a person or organization of authority or trust, responsible for the well-being of one or more vulnerable persons.

Vulnerable people are individuals who are at greater risk of being harmed than the general population, because of their age, disability, handicap, or circumstances, whether temporary or permanent. Vulnerable people can include children, youth, senior citizens, people with physical, developmental, emotional, social, or other disabilities. It also includes people who have been victims of crime or accidents, those who are addicted or dependent on addictive substances, and those who are otherwise left with little or no defense against persons who could harm them.

This form gives Summerside Police Services consent to conduct a search in criminal conviction records to check if the applicant has previously been convicted of any sexual offense listed in the schedule of the Criminal Records Act, and has been granted or issued a record suspension (pardon).
